

Becoming a member of Mobility Sweden

Criteria for membership

- Membership can be sought by a company that develops, manufactures, or imports passenger cars, trucks and/or buses.
- Members must be able to display a registration with the Swedish Companies Registration Office.
- Applicant should have been in the field for at least 12 months.
- Membership assumes that current activities are conducted by a legal entity.
- To become a member it is necessary to comply with Mobility Sweden's statutes (see link). This means that members are obliged to comply with Swedish legislation and provide statistics and other information that the association needs to do their best for the industry.
- In the same way as mentioned above, statutes of the Confederation of Swedish Enterprise must also be followed (see link).
- Members must be able to display the most recent annual report with an audit report and prove that they have an orderly economy. A member needs to comply with and apply the guidelines from ARN (Allmänna Reklamationsnämnden/The National Board for Consumer Disputes).
- The member is an exclusive representative of the brand in the Swedish market.
- Members are expected to be involved and take an active part in Mobility Sweden's working groups, committees, and boards.

How to apply for membership

- A formal request must be sent to Mobility Sweden to become a member, including a full statement of the company applying. See the Membership form \(link\).

A formal decision will be made at the following board meeting, i.e., the application must be submitted well in advance.
